Explore Endless Horizons...

Garden Route - The Golfing Mecca

The Garden Route's mild climate and the spectacular coastal scenery makes this unique stretch of South Africa, a golfer's paradise. This area offers a golfing experience comparable with the very best in the world - for example, the Pinnacle Point Golf Resort, perched atop staggering cliffs along the dramatic coastline near Mossel Bay, was selected as one of the World's Top 10 Best New Courses for 2006 - the first time, in the history of golf, that a South African Golf course was selected for such an honour.

Mossel Bay is home to Pinnacle Point Golf Resort and the Mossel Bay Golf Club, which is an 18-hole links course which has just recently been remodeled and upgraded and is situated above a peninsular that juts out into the Indian Ocean with terrain that is densely vegetated and undulating.

Located in the heart of the Garden Route, Mossel Bay is halfway between Port Elizabeth and Cape Town and is within easy driving range of other well-known golf courses such as Oubaai (Herolds Bay) and Simola and Pezula in Knysna.

This seaside town offers at least 300 days of perfect weather a year and has everything you need to enjoy the great South African outdoors. A beautiful bay, stunning beaches on both sides of the bay for swimming and walking, and breathtaking scenery

Golfers are taking advantage of the non-member policies at most of the Garden Route courses and are basing themselves at The Point Hotel for a couple of days of golfing delight all within easy reach. See map of Golf Courses and details on www.pointhotel.co.za
